

Ceremony:

For your ceremony I need songs playing while your guests arrive. My go to music is a romantic piano playlist on Spotify. If you would like to customize this list, please feel free, but I do have a plan if not.

Parents/ Grandparents:*Bridesmaids/Groomsmen:*Bride:*Exit Song (Recessional):*Cocktail Hour/ Dinner:

For your cocktail hour I ask for at least 20 songs to give me enough examples to build a playlist you will enjoy. This usually calls for relaxing, chill out songs about love just happy overall. I usually play things like Frank Sinatra, Micheal Buble, also a ton of Postmodern Jukebox (they do jazzy covers of pop songs that everyone can enjoy). But again, this is all about you, so if you want to provide me with all of the songs to be played, please feel free.

Announcements:

If you would like me to announce you into your reception, please tell me how you would like to be announced!

Example: “The new Mr. and Mrs. Smith!” or “The new Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Smith”

Let me make it clear, that I will say whatever you like!

In addition to how YOU would like to be announced, if you would like me to announce the members of your wedding party, please list them IN THE ORDER THEY WILL BE ENTERING!

Also, If you would like to enter to a Song, please provide that here:

Toasts

Please give me a list of the people who will be giving a toast. Please provide their name, their relation to you, and their title in your party (Maid of honor, Best Man, Father of Bride, ect.)

Formal Dances:

For your formals, I have a list here of the typical dances people do. You can of course, omit or add any dances to fit your families. Just use this as a guideline!

First Dance:

Father/Daughter:

Mother/Son:

Last Dances: For last dance I always ask for 2. Give me one upbeat, and one sweet, slow dance song. This way I can decide to play on or both depending on how your party is going. Lately I have been doing epic sing alongs as the last dances and they have been super fun. For example: Don't Stop Believing by Journey, or even Bohemian Rhapsody by Queen. Just a fun idea that has been very popular lately.

Reception:

For your reception music I would again ask for at least 20 songs of different artists/genres you enjoy, as well as must plays you may have. Again, if you would like to give me more please feel free. My goal is to make this night special to your relationship, and the mus that tells your story. So any information that will help me do that, Please include it!!
